Emily Schmidt, ISO CRS Specialist for VA Communities: Having the documentation links in the OP worksheet is fantastic!

Wetlands Watch: Lisa, you froze on your end of things if you can't hear Maxine William Nuckols: It's all impressive.

Tom Brockenbrough (Accomack County): Great presentation! Thanks.

Julie Lomax: Very impressive and comprehensive. This is a great example for a regional PPI. Thank you!

Thomas Coghill: Thanks Maxine!

Alyssa Flatt: thank you!

Brian Rahal: Great work! Thanks!

Tristian MacKinnon Barnes: Norfolk has a PPI, but I think a regional one would be great

Matt Simons, City of NFK Resilience: Norfolk is happy to share our PPI lessons learned with the PDC.

William Nuckols: We'd like to hear from VFMA about building capacity in the northern neck. We have no floodplain managers up here.

William Nuckols: We would like help understanding and applying. Town of Colonial Beach.

Wetlands Watch: madison.teeter@wetlandswatch.org

Brian Raha: We have a program study for city wide inlet capacity and a pipe upgrade project.

Darryl Walker: Flood/Resilience Projects this time; Planning/Capacity/Studies last time (Round 2).

Brandy Buford: Also feel free to send any CFPF related questions to cfpf@dcr.virginia.gov and one of our Floodplain Program Planners would be happy to assist you!

Tom Brockenbrough (Accomack County): Accomack will not be applying but A-NPDC will be making an application

Tom Brockenbrough (Accomack County): You might not be able to get Colonial Beach specifically but they do have down to the zip code level so you can get everything in that zip code.

Brian Rahal: I don't think anything about RR 2.0 changes any of the NFIP minimum standards.

Matthew Dalon: Bill - DCR has additional Coastal Flood Risk mapped through the Coastal Resilience Master Plan. This can be viewed in the Coastal Resilience Web Explorer. <https://www.dcr.virginia.gov/crmp/ResilienceExplorer>

Thomas Coghill: We've talked about making this is a regional group effort

Tom Brockenbrough (Accomack County): No updates from Accomack

Christy Parrish: No, James City was covered by Mike. :)

Matt Simons, City of NFK Resilience: Norfolk received CFPF funding to draft a CRS Watershed Master Plan. Kicking off soon.

Darryl Walker: No Petersburg updates other than CFPF previously mentioned.

Thomas Coghill: Thank you Madison!

Brian Raha Fun fact in Alexandria: Repetitive Loss Properties in 2018: 10
Repetitive Loss Properties in 2022: 38

Brian Rahal: Thank you!

Julie Lomax: Thank you!

Tom Brockenbrough (Accomack County): Thanks!

Bruce Herbert: Thank you
