Mary-Carson Stiff, Wetlands Watch: If you're interested, please indicate in the chat

Mary-Carson Stiff, Wetlands Watch: (Printed copies)

Kelly Hengler: Yes, we would like them printed! We go door to door with printed material, as well as at Civic League Meeting, especially for Visitors from outside of the direct homes here.

Mary Hill: yes hard copy

Mary-Carson Stiff, Wetlands Watch: Kelly and Mary, please coordinate with Stanley.

Mary Hill: Great

Mary-Carson Stiff, Wetlands Watch: If you're online and have questions for Karen, please add them in the chat whenever Roderick Scott - FMIA: Karen, How do we get flood insurance discounting for NBS? Currently the NFIP and private insurance rates do not provide credit on premium rates for NBS.

Roderick Scott - FMIA: How do we get building inventory and FEMA flood maps on the VA resources maps?

Roderick Scott - FMIA: But I only see critical facilities buildings layer????

Mary Hill: yes

Kelly Hengler: Repost of the link with the layers?

Kelly Hengler: TY!

Tom Brockenbrough, Accomack County: Accomack working on annual reporting requirement as well as our 5 Year Cycle visit which is scheduled for late September. Amending our flood ordinance. Want to ask if any of the areas with LiMWA's have heard anything further about amending them in Virginia. Have sent in a couple of queries but have yet to hear back.

Kelly Hengler: Please share and link and we well definately push out the info! TY!

Greta Hawkins: Hampton is in the middle of our 5 year cycle visit. The official visit date is 8/26 but we are having biweekly calls with Emily until then.

Tom Brockenbrough, Accomack County: No, have to ask. Saw it on the agenda and asked the building official what he knew about it.

Tom Brockenbrough, Accomack County: Thanks

kenneth somerset: sorry for no audio, feel free to contact me to discuss

Mary Hill: thank you for the presentation
